G D

1. O hum - ble car - pen - ter, down on your hands — and — knees,
2. O lo - ving la - bor - er with the sweat u - pon your face,

4 G Em D/F#

look on your han - di - work and build a house so you may dwell in o build a ta - ble that I too may join you in the Fa - ther's

7 A Em D A G

Me, so you may dwell in Me. The work was done place, oh, In — the Fa - ther's place! The king - dom's come
The dead will rise
The curse is done,

11 D Bm A

with no - thing but — wood and nails — in Your — scar - borne hands and built u - pon — wood and nails — gripped with — joy - ful - ness — and give You praise — wood and nails — will — not hold them down!
the bat - tle won, — swords bent down — in — to plow - shares,

14 G D Bm

— O show me how to work and praise — trus - ting that — So send me out with in Your ways — know - ing that — These wood - en tombs, we'll break them soon — and fa - shion them
— Your scar - borne hands we'll join with them — ser - ving at —

17 A G

— I am Your — in - stru - ment. —
— the task is — fi - nished —
— in - to — flo - wer - beds. —
— the ta - ble — You've pre - pared. —
